Dear PPSD Families of Middle and High School Students,

Last week, we announced that the school district would begin the school year following a partial reopening model. Under a partial reopening, Providence Public Schools will phase in an alternating schedule for middle and high school students over the first month of school. We chose this model to keep building capacity to no more than 50 percent and to maximize the days of in-person learning for every student.

Here's how an alternating sch
