Dear PPSD Families of Middle and High School Students,

As we begin the school year, we are implementing a partial reopening model. Under a partial reopening, Providence Public Schools will phase in an alternating schedule for middle and high school students over the first month of school. We chose this model to keep building capacity to no more than 50 percent and to maximize the days of in-person learning for every student.

Here's how an alternating schedule works: Students will be divided into two groups, Group A and Group B. Group A will attend school in person on a Monday. Group B will attend school remotely on that same Monday.

On Tuesday, the groups will switch. Group B will attend school in person and Group A will attend remotely. It will alternate back and forth like this for two weeks, then start again, with Group A attending in person and Group B attending remotely.

We made sure that siblings were always in the same group, so families would not have to contend with different schedules.

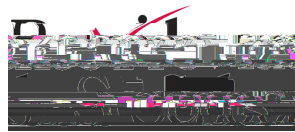

Because we want to ease everybody into this new schedule, we are staggering the person start dates for different grades.

Emartes, los grupos se intercambiará . Egrupo B asistirá la escuela en persona y el grupo A asistirá de forma remota. Se alternará durante dos semanas, luego comenzará de nuevo, con el Grupo A asistiendo en persona y el Grupo B asistiendo de forma remota.

Os aseguramos de que los hermanos estuvieran siempre en el mismo grupo, para que las familias no tuvieran que lidiar con horarios diferentes.

Debido a que queremos facilitar a todos en este nuevo horario, y a nuevas rutinas que vienen con una reapertura parcial de las escuelas, estamos escalonando las fechas de inicio en persona para diferentes grados.
